Grey sê totsiens — Grey bids farewell

Farewell message from the Principal

For thirty-four years Mr. J. Loubser has associated himself intimately with Grey College and in doing so he has largely contributed to the progress of our school. He has served the school to the very best of his abilities. In the classroom, where he was a devoted teacher, in the hostels and on the sports fields, he commanded the respect and affection of all with whom he came into contact. We will also remember him for his subtle and dry sense of humour. His contribution to rugby at Grey is certainly invaluable. The achievements of our rugby teams, especially the first team, are a testimony to his great success in this field. Mr. Loubser, we cannot find adequate words to thank you for your loyal services in the interest of Grey College and we could never express enough appreciation for the outstanding work done here. We extend our very best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Loubser for the future.

Grey College congratulates Mr. E. S. East on his appointment as principal of the English Medium High School in Welkom. Enthusiasm and efficiency have always been characteristic of his work in the classroom, his coaching of cricket, hockey and rugby and the arranging of matches and tours. Our good wishes go to him and his family.

Our congratulations also go to Mr. J. Buys on his appointment as principal of the Primary School at Brandfort. Mr. Buys has rendered invaluable services as member of first the Primary and subsequently the Secondary Staffs, and has contributed his full share to the extra-mural activities of our school. May he and his family be very happy at Brandfort.

Mr. J. Steyn has accepted a teaching position at the Bethlehem Voortrekker High School. We will remember him for his worthy example, his devotion to duty and for his big contribution to the progress of our Chess Club. Our best wishes accompany him and his family.

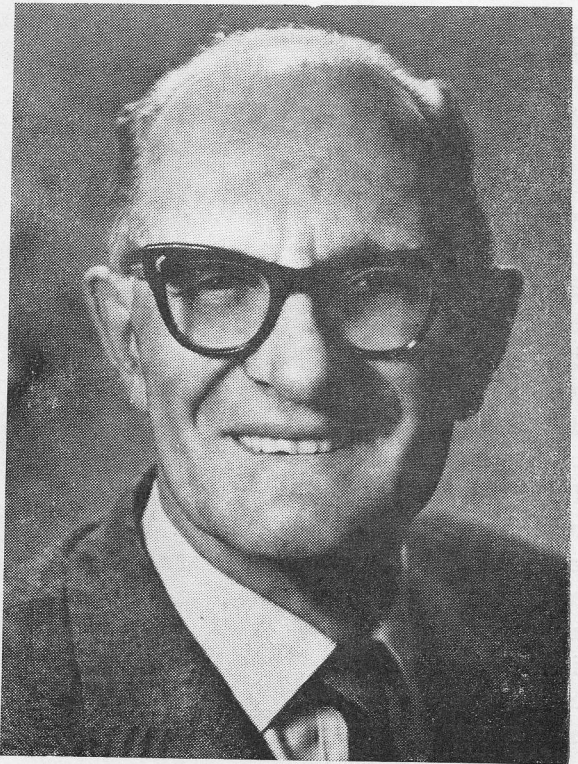

Mr. Jackie du Toit has accepted an appointment as lecturer at the local teachers' Training College. His work has always been of a high standard and we appreciate his enthusiasm, sense of responsibility and the thoroughness with which he coached tennis and hockey.

Mr. B. Bredenkamp has resigned to take up a position as organiser of adult education in the Free State and Northern Cape. His undaunted enthusiasm and abounding energy will always serve as an example to all those who were associated with him. Mr. Bredenkamp deserves high praise indeed for the excellent standard attained by our swimmers under his watchful eye. Very best wishes to you and your family for the future.

Mr. Johan Viljoen is going to farm, Mr. Jack Verster has accepted a position in Pretoria and Mr. Burger has been appointed vice-principal of the Wilgehof Primary School. We wish to thank these gentlemen for their loyal support and for the way in which they fulfilled all their duties.

Gentlemen, Grey College bids you—Farewell!
Au revoir.

J. J. LOUBSER

Telkens wanneer 'n onderwyser Grey-Kollege verlaat dan dink 'n mens nie net aan die persoon self nie maar ook aan een of ander spesiale eien-skap wat hy besit het en wat nou uit die skool-lewe sal verdwyn. By Koos Pit, soos staflede hom al jarelank ken, sal daar geen twyfel bestaan oor wat hierdie besondere eienskap was nie: dis natuurlik die gawe wat hy besit om op 'n onverwagte oomblik met 'n onverwagte en blykbaar onlogiese sê-ding uit sy onuitputlike humorbron te voorskyn te kom.

Gewoonlik kon hy met 'n vrome gesig sy spitsvondighede kwyd raak en dis alleen wanneer jy na sy oë kyk dat jy begin besef dat hy besig is om met iemand of iets die gek te skeer. So was daar byvoorbeeld een onderwyser (sê maar Piet) wat maar taamlik suinig was, en toe daar op 'n keer besluit is om 'n sikspens toegang te vra vir 'n spesiale skolewedstryd, sê Oom Koos ewig ernstig: „Ek is nou jammer daaroor, want Piet sou graag die wedstryd gesien het en nou sal hy by die huis moet bly.”

Hy het niks van bombastiese mense gehou nie en as hy op sy stadige maar sekere manier sien dat 'n mede-onderwyser effens grootdoenerig begin word, was hy altyd by om 'n speldjie in die ballon te steek, tot genot van sy luisteraars.

Sy groot belangstelling was natuurlik rugby — of voetbal, soos hy dit maar altyd genoem het. Hy was nou net die teenoorgestelde van die diere wat 'n winterslaap deurmaak, want sy intensiewe belangstelling in Grey-Kollege se rugby was vir hom elke winter 'n verjongingskuur. Nie alleen was dit die eerstespan wat sy aandag geniet het nie — dit was natuurlik nommer een — maar ook die doen en late van al die juniorspanne. En hoe nader dit aan die Sentraal-wedstryd kom, hoe meer opgewonde raak hy en hoe vinniger kom die onverwagte grappe.

Die seuns het hom lief gehad, want hulle waardeer die egte mens en hulle hou van 'n droë humorsin. En praat van droog: byna elke jaar, by die afskeidsfunksie, is daar een of ander matrikulant wat met sy „niem 'n lieë, drrrroeë prrrroef-buis” die saal laat skaterlag.

Niemand is onmisbaar nie en daar sal opvolgers wees wat net sulke goeie rugbyspanne produseer, want Grey se rugby-tradisie is nie die van een man alleen nie; daar sal ander manne wees wat met dieselfde filosofiese uitkyk op sake help om die ewewig van die skool te bewaar; maar daar sal nooit 'n ander Koos Pit kom nie en dis met beswaarde harte wat ons aan hom sê: „Dankie, totsiens en alle voorspoed.”

D.M.

MNR. J. J. LOUBSER

Op 16 Januarie 1963 heropen die O.V.S.-skole weer, maar ongelukkig sal J. Loubser nie daar wees nie. Wie kan Grey-kollege voorstel sonder oom Koos? Wie kan homself 'n voetbaloefening voorstel sonder oom Koos en sy beroemde bloekomlatte? Daardie wonderlike en welbekende kreet met 'n belangrike wedstryd van „Komaan Grey” sal nou stil wees. Meer as dertig jaar lank het diegene wat gelukkig was om vir die eerste span te speel daardie welbekende kreet vanaf die kantlyn gehoor, en hoe 'n aansporing was dit nie gewees vir elke Grey-seun om nog daardie laaste ekstra bietjie in die stryd te werp nie. Onder sy bekwame leiding het honderde Grey-seuns baie geleer, maar die grootste les van alles wat hulle van hierdie groot gestalte geleer het, was om nog steeds groot te bly in die uur van jou nederlaag. Wen of verloor, hulle het geleer om die spel te speel terwille van die spel. Die vernaamste van alles wat hy ons as oud-Greys geleer het, was om die spel van die lewe te speel, in soverre dat jy te alle tye net jou beste, en net die heel beste, moet lewer in diens van jou kollege of skool en in diens van jou medemens.

Baie van die vooraanstaande boere van die Republiek het hulle eerste liefde vir die boerdery van mnr. Loubser gekry. So is daar ook baie wetenskaplikes in ons land wat hulle grondslag van hom gekry het. Met sy bekwaamheid as onderwyser en die liefde vir sy vak was hy vir hulle steeds 'n aansporing gewees.

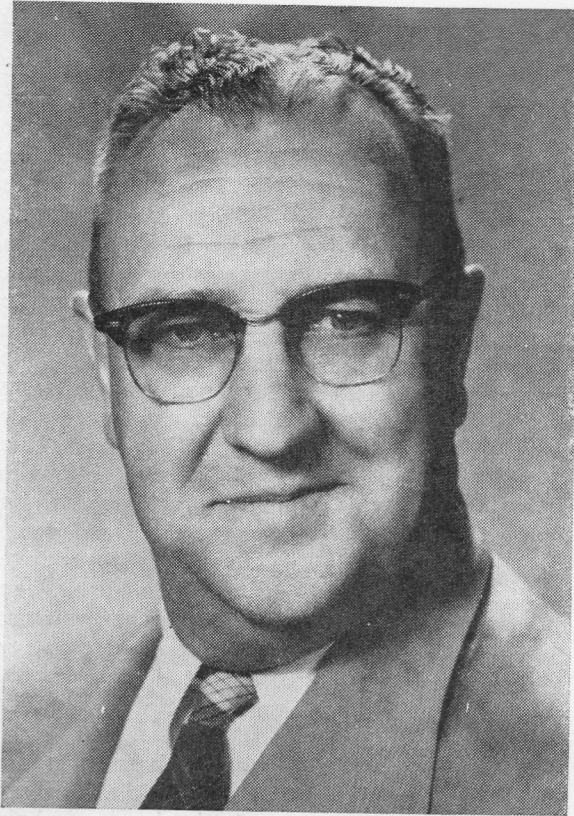

Sy gesonde en besliste lewenshouding en pittige humorsin het hom baie gewild en gelief gemaak onder al sy leerlinge.

As die stryd van die lewe soms moeilik word vir u as oud-Grey, laat net die woorde van Koos Loubser, „Komaan Grey”, in u ore weerklink vind en u sal moed en inspirasie vir die stryd kry.

EWIE CRONJÉ (1951—1957)

MR. E. S. EAST

There is almost no branch of Grey College life on which Eddie East, during his comparatively short stay at Grey, did not leave his mark. His brilliant Latin teaching, his enthusiastic coaching of cricket, hockey and rugby, his phenomenal memory — he could tell you off-hand how many runs Denis Jooste scored in the inter-high five years ago — and his tremendous capacity for hard work — all these made him a master whom boys and fellow teachers will always remember.

Sometimes there were grumbles about his "slave driving", as an aggrieved matric boy called it when his class was given "five summaries for Monday". But the grumbling was superficial because everyone knew that he would work just as hard correcting the summaries and that there was no question of his leading his troops from the rear, so to speak.

His tongue-lashings achieved a fame of their own. "A woodpecker with a diamond drill would not get anything into your skull" was one of his gems; and all boys who passed through his hands will have their own special phrases which they will remember. His bark, however, was worse than his bite, and provided that a boy did his duty, whether in class-room or on playing field, he could count on Eddie's support: but he would not tolerate a shirker.

Grey College is indeed thankful to Eddie East for ten years of devoted and enthusiastic service as a teacher, as a coach, as a splendidly thorough organiser of tours. It wishes him well at his new school and has no doubt that under his leadership this school will become a much more serious rival to Grey, both at work and at play.

D.M.

MR. EDDIE EAST

I doubt very much whether Grey College has ever had, nor is likely to have, a master who has a better knowledge of sports and games, has a better memory of results attained by boys and teams, has better organising ability or who, during his stay at Grey College, has given more time to extra-mural activities or has ridden more miles in his car in the interests of Grey College sport, than Mr. Eddie East.

During his stay at Grey College Mr. East gave his time to the coaching of 3 of our major sports, all of which flourished as a result of his endeavours. When he coached hockey, the First team reached a standard never attained before. Ten years ago Grey had 2 senior cricket teams, today, as he is about to leave, we boast 7 senior sides in the various leagues. Many fine players have Mr. East to thank for their cricketing ability, and I doubt whether his sound advice, nor the way in which he put it across, will ever be forgotten.

When he gave his help to rugby, our teams also did exceptionally well, and as a result of his endeavours, many enjoyable tours were undertaken. Few people realize that it was Mr. East who for the last few years arranged fixtures for every rugby team at school for every week-end during the rugby season.

We can assure you, Mr. East, that the time you spent on Grey College sports fields has been greatly appreciated by both masters and boys alike, and that your absence will be sorely felt.

Grey's loss is Welkom English Medium's gain, and when Mr. East makes his presence felt in Welkom, we at Grey College will certainly have to be on our toes when tackling our Goldfields opponents on the sports field.

D. SCHONEGEVEL.

MNR. J. J. BUYS

Toe mnr. Buys vroeër vanjaar vir onderhoude na Parys en Bethlehem ontbied is, het ons begin vrees dat hy een of ander tyd 'n benoeming as skoolhoof sou kry. Ons het darem nie gedink ons sal hom so gou verloor nie. Nou moet ons die feit aanvaar dat hy die prinsipaalskap van die laerskool op Brandfort aanvaar het en dat ons aanstaande jaar nie meer oor sy bekwame dienste sal beskik nie.

Baie geluk met hierdie bevordering, mnr. Buys. Ons vertrou dat u op Brandfort baie gelukkig sal wees en die verantwoordelike posisie met eer sal beklee.

Mnr. Buys het sy eerste onderwysonderervinding aan 'n plaasskool in Steynsrus opgedoen en vervolgens te Zastron en Bethlehem skoolgehou. In 1955 het hy na Grey-Kollege gekom waar hy tot einde 1960 aan die laerskool verbonde was. Gedurende die afgelope twee jaar was hy verantwoordelik vir Afrikaans en Sosiale Studie in die hoërskool.

Op sy kenmerkende stil en besadigde manier het hy sy plek in ons skool volgestaan. Ons sal hom nie net as 'n knap onderwyser mis nie, maar ook as die behulpsame en pligsgetroue assistent-huisvader en sportafrigter.

Grey-Kollege se beste wense vergesel mnr. en mev. Buys en die oulike klein swartoogdogtertjie.

MNR. JOHAN STEYN (1956—1962)

Mnr. Steyn aanvaar volgende jaar 'n assistentspos aan die Hoërskool te Bethlehem. Ons is daarvan oortuig dat mnr. Steyn hom in sy nuwe werkring net so gou sal aanpas en algemeen gewild onder sy kollegas sal wees, as wat dit die geval met hom hier by Grey was.

Mnr. Steyn sal onthou word as die vader van skaak hier op Grey. Op hierdie gebied het mnr.

Steyn uitmuntende sukses behaal en die onlangse toer na Johannesburg het bewys gelewer dat Grey met enige skool in die land op hierdie gebied kan meeding.

Ons bedank hom hartlik vir sy deinste wat hy so getrou op alle terreine van ons skoollewe gelewer het. Ons wens mnr. en mev. Steyn en die twee witkop seuns alles van die beste toe en mag hulle baie gelukkig wees in die koel lug tussen die groen wilgers op Bethlehem.

MR. J. STEYN

It is so unfortunate that all good things come to an end. One of those things is the service Mr. Steyn has given to Grey College. From my many years with him, I have found him to be ever helpful and considerate. All of the many students who have passed through his hands will agree that he taught with enthusiasm and with the utmost conscientiousness.

A more genuinely sincere man would be extremely difficult to find. Not only did he teach us a good deal of Afrikaans and German, but he also taught us to enjoy our lives, setting a good example himself. He also endeavoured to make us responsible men through his kindly solicitations. I am sure we all will agree that he is a "Jolly Good Fellow."

We hope most sincerely that he has good health and happiness in future.

„Baie dankie vir alles wat u so gewilliglik en edelmoedig aan ons gegee het — Totsiens.”

D. SIMMONS, 10EI.

MNR. JACKIE DU TOIT (1955—1962)

Mnr. du Toit was vanjaar met studieverlof om sy proefskrif vir die doktorsgraad in opvoedkunde te voltooi. In die loop van die jaar het hy 'n lektorpos aan die plaaslike onderwyserskollege aanvaar. Baie geluk met hierdie benoeming, mnr. du Toit. Ons gun u die verhoging na u jarelange studie. Mag u in die nuwe betrekking baie gelukkig wees en deur u werk onder die aspirant-onderwysers(esse) bydra tot die algemene verbetering van die onderwys in die Vrystaat.

Mnr. du Toit het in die klaskamer en op die sportveld sy allerbeste gelewer. In sy vak, Biologie, het sy kandidate besonder knap presteer en sy afrigting op die hokkieveld en tennisbaan was van 'n hoogstaande gehalte. Veral ons tennis-spelers het geweldig gebaat by sy deeglike kennis en puik spel.

Ons sal mnr. du Toit onthou as die fynge-manierde meester met die skerp humorsin en die aansteeklike laggie.

Grey-Kollege groet u en wens u en u gesin alles van die beste toe.

MNR. BERNIE BREDENKAMP (1957—1962)

Vanaf Januarie aanstaande jaar aanvaar mnr. Bredenkamp 'n betrekking by die departement van Onderwys, Kuns en Wetenskap as organiseerder van volwasse onderwys vir die gebied Oranje-Vrystaat en Noord-Kaapland. Hiermee wens ons hom van harte geluk.

Grey sal aanstaande jaar die kenmerkende stem oor die luidsprekers by die swembad baie mis. Dit is by die swembad waar mnr. Bredenkamp sy organisasietalent openbaar het en groot diens aan die skool bewys het. Mnr. Bredenkamp se vriendelikheid en opborrelende energie gee ons die versekering dat hy van sy nuwe betrekking 'n sukses sal maak.

Grey-Kollege bedank mnr. Bredenkamp vir sy dienste in die koshuis en sy entoesiasme oor die algemeen aangewend om saam te werk en die skool te dien.

Ons beste wense vergesel mnr. en mev. Bredenkamp en klein Thomas in hulle nuwe loopbaan.

MNR. JOHAN VILJOEN (1959, en 1961—1962)

Mnr. Viljoen was drie jaar aan Grey verbonde. Volgende jaar gaan hy hom op die boerdery toelê. Ons weet dat dit vir mnr. Viljoen moeilik was om te besluit, maar ons weet dat sy uiteinde-like besluit prysenswaardig is, want mnr. Viljoen wil graag naby sy bejaarde ouers wees. Ons weet dat die toekomstige boer aan die oewers van die Vaalrivier, 'n goeie vriend van Grey-kollege sal bly. Hiermee bedoel ons dat hy nie die personeel sal vergeet as hy 'n huweliksonthaal in die Mimosatuine op Parys reël nie.

Baie dankie vir al die ywer en onbaatsugtige diens aan Grey gelewer. Ons wens jou alles van die beste toe.

MNR. JACK VERSTER (1961—1962)

Mnr. Verster het net mooi mak geword hier op Grey en nou gaan hy jou waarlikwaar skuing soek in die koelte van die Jakarandas in Pretoria. Mnr. Verster se eienaardig-aantreklike humorsin sal ons nog lank bybly. In die skool het u goeie werk gelewer en buitemuurs kon ons altyd op u staatmaak. Hiervoor sê Grey-Kollege baie dankie.

Ons hoop dat mnr. en mev. Verster baie gelukkig in Pretoria sal wees. Moenie vergeet om die dogtertjie vir ons te kom wys as u eendag 'n draai in Bloemfontein maak nie.

MNR. E. J. C. BURGER

'n Mens kan mnr. E. J. C. Burger se verblyf aan Grey-Kollege Laer as volg saamvat:

Hy het gekom, pragtig ingepas, puik werk ge-lewer en sy welverdiende beloning ontvang.

Mnr. Burger het in Januarie 1959 alhier diens aanvaar en dadelik getoon dat hy 'n bate en krag vir enige skool sal wees. Hy het dadelik ingeval en puik werk binne sowel as buite die klaskamer gelewer — al sy inspekteursrapporte getuig hiervan.

Mnr. Burger, pragtig bygestaan deur mev. Burger, het intens belang gestel in al die bedrywighede van Grey-Kollege. By funksies wat baie voorbereiding en daarna weer baie opruimingswerk ingehou het, was hulle twee gereelde en bekende figure. Ons waardeer dit ten seerste.

Waar mnr. Burger ons terwille van promosie verlaat het in Junie 1962, wil ons graag sê: Mooi skoot! Nou kan u die onderwys van die O.V.S. nog beter dien en Grey-Kollege sal u verdere loopbaan met die grootste belangstelling volg.

C.C.F.B.

IN MEMORIAM

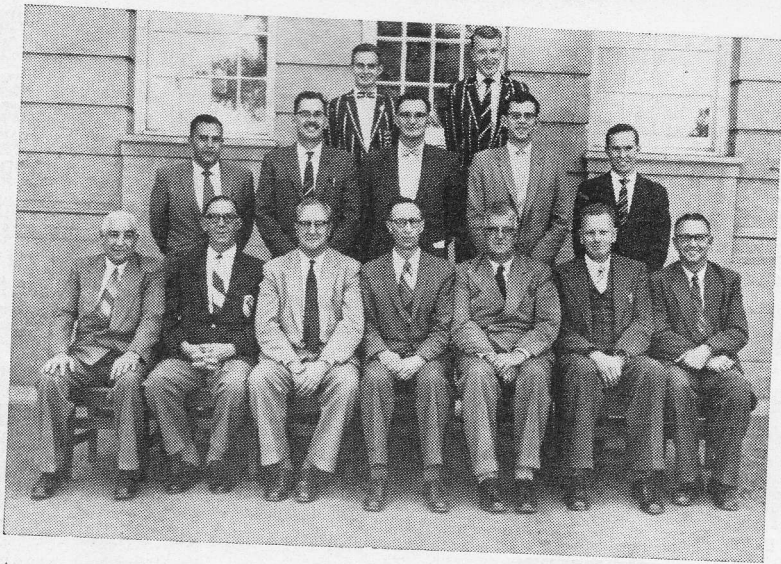

Op 10 Maart vanjaar is een van ons belowende jong seuns op tragiese wyse van ons weggeneem.

Terwyl hy by 'n maat gespeel het, het hy sy moeder, mev. Anna Richter-Visser, voor die slaghuis op Rodenbeck sien stilhou. Hy het met sy fiets daarheen gery maar 'n entjie van die slaghuis af is hy deur 'n motor doodgery.

Chris Richter-Visser Burger was een van die knap seuns in die st. 4-klas, 'n gewilde maat, getroue Voortrekker en 'n belowende klein sportman.

Sy plotselinge heengaan was vir sy ouers, vriende en die skool 'n groot skok. In stille herinnering bring ons hulde aan sy nagedagtenis.

EIN NÄCHTLICHER BESUCH IM OBSTGARTEN DES NACHBARN

Reife gelbe Apfelsinen im Obstgarten des Nachbarn stachen einem im Vorübergehen in die Augen. Also beschlossen wir, drei Freunde jenen Abend da einen Besuch zu bringen

Es war sehr dunkel in dieser Ecke des Obstgartens. Ich sollte bei dem loch in dem Zaune bleiben und auch ein weisses Taschentuch dort hängen damit meine Kameraden den Heimweg leicht finden könnten.

Eine Weile ging es gut aber später wurde das Stehen langweilig. Plötzlich beschloss ich meine Kameraden einen Streich zu spielen: Ich sollte das Taschentuch an eine Stelle hängen wo der Zaun noch unbeschädigt war!

Nachdem ich es getan hatte, warf ich sofort einen Stein auf das Dach des Hauses. Sogleich öffnete sich die Tür. Der Hausherr, mit einem Schrot-gewehre in der Hand, kam heraus.

Meine Kameraden liefen auf das weisse Taschentuch zu! Ach! da war kein Loch! Mit Mühe kletterten meine Kameraden über den Zaun und entwischten also dem bösen Hausherrn.

Bald kamen sie mit zerfetzten Kleidern nach Hause und sie wollten mir das Tell gerben.

LEON MAREE, St. 8AI.

OP TOER

Ons was al lank op die loer
Na iets wat ons kon bevry.
Dit was 'n lekker voetbaltoer
Wat ons ook later het gekry.

Die pad van hier tot in die Kaap,
Was geen reis van 'n dag.
Maar eind'lik het ons aangegaap,
Ou Tafelberg wat op ons wag.

Teen S.A.C.S. het ons in eendeweer,
Ons eerste wedstryd afgespeel.
Maar hulle kon ons gladnie keer;
Vir hul was ons een te veel.

Daarna is ons na die Paarl,
Nie eintlik om te speel.
Ons was net almal „lekker kêrel”;
Die tyd het ons nooit verveel.

Die volgende was Somerset-Wes
Wat ons net nie kon klop.
Al het ons hoe probeer ons bes,
Die uitslag was: gelykop.

Na die hou van vele partytjies
Het ons teenstander, J. J. du Preez —
Wat ons trakteer het — mooi meisies —
Ons die finale nekslag gegee.

Stadig het hy voortgestoom.
Die lang, swart ystertrein.
En voor ons dit nog mooi kon droom,
Was ons weer t'rug in Bloemfontein.

P. A. PIENAAR, St. 8AI.

DIE KLEURLINGVISSERS

Sommer vroeg in die oggend vertrek die vissers met hul roeiboort na hulle jagveld, die see.

„Manne, dit lyk vir my ons ga sommer lekker vang va'dag, die dam is doodstil. Daar blaas die man vannie berg, nou moet ons roei la't kraak! Oraait, bietjie regs en diepsee toe, daarsy, die vlag is op, val die net! Roei soe 'n boog, wat sê hy nou? Dis hy, land toe, opskud!”

„Kom nou, kom nou, trek daai net in, anders is allie vis uit voor ons die net oppie land het! Ah! hier's die vissies nou, aitsa! julle blinklywe, kyk hoe skop hulle. Ja, julle spartel verniet, as julle nie so vrindlik was om in ons see-slagyster in te loop swem'ie, het ons nie eers bietjie koffie virrie naweek gehad nie. Staan so bietjie soontoe 'seblief nôi, anders gooi hulle nôi dalk raak as hulle die vissies uitgooi. A nee a man, hoe gooi jy dan so by'ie mandjie verby, moenie soos 'n swartman werk nie!”

„Ja, dis reg, vars kabeljou, Baas, baie vars, kyk hulle knip nog hulle oegies. Dit sal ag sielings wees virrie twee, baie dankie.”

J. VOLSTEEDT (7A).

A NARROW ESCAPE

His face was a mask of fear. Five seconds later his expression was one of serene repose. Five seconds later he was dead! A knife was protruding from his chest

I could remember no further. They had found me staggering along the road in a state of dazed shock. The doctor's verdict was one of partial amnesia due to a severe emotional shock. The murder was obviously the work of a psychopathic killer. The police informed me that as soon as my memory returned, I would be requested to make a statement.

I wandered down the road. Dusk was falling. I was trying to remember the man's face. A man! How did I know it was a man? At last I was getting somewhere! My memory was slowly returning.

Purposely, I strode on to the place where the murder had taken place. They say that murderers always return to the scene of the crime. A thought struck me and I stopped dead in my tracks. If the murderer had returned, and if I happened to run into him, what was to stop him from killing me? My next thought comforted me. Psychopathic killers often had no recollection of what they had done. But in that case they wouldn't be able to return to where it had happened. If he returned, it meant that he could remember! I realized that I was in grave danger of being killed myself.

By now it was completely dark. I had reached the scene of the murder. A dark figure was slowly coming down the road. I shrank back into the shadows. My memory was returning fast. I could see the face of the man walking past. My memory had returned completely. I knew now that the murderer had returned! I laughed softly.

A car came speeding down the road. I decided to postpone my plan. I returned the knife to my pocket. That man would never know what a narrow escape he had had. Not that it bothered me. An experienced psychopathic killer like myself never had any difficulty in finding victims!

OOM KOOS VORENTOE EN SY DRANKIES

Oom Koos Vorentoe het in 'n vissersdorpje in die Westelike Provinsie gewoon. Hy het, deur te hengel, 'n lewe gemaak, maar was verslaaf aan goedkoop wyn.

As Oom Koos die dag met sy vissersbootjie uit was, moes hy eers by die „Oog” aangaan voor hy sy pad huis toe kon vind. As hy dan by die huis aankom, was hy baie spraaksaam. Tant Susan, onder wie se pantoffelregering hy gestaan het, was nie hiermee gediend nie en gou is hy dan by die huis uitgeboender waarop hy dan op die agterstoep op die seilstoel vernag het.

Die Dominee het oom Koos ook al vermaan, en dan het hy hand en mond belowe om nie weer te oortree nie. Maar nie te lank nie of oom Koos het weer in sy ou sonde verval.

So het dit gebeur dat oom Koos en sy medehengelaars op 'n reënigerige dag gaan hengel het. Gou het oom Koos die bottel aangespreek wat in sy sak was en sy maats het sy voorbeeld gevolg. Die vangs was goed, en dit het nog meer rede gegee om nog dieper in die bottel te kyk. So druk was hulle besig dat hulle nie die naderende storm sien aankom het nie, en voordat hulle veiligheid kon bereik, is hulle oorweldig.

'n Groot brander het die bootjie laat omslaan, maar dit het oom Koos geluk om 'n roeispaan in die hande te kry. Nadat hy 'n ruk op die see rondgedryf het, is hy deur 'n reddingsbootjie opgepik.

Die volgende dag kry Dominee oom Koos in die straat. Hy besluit om die ou nou beslis tot inkeer te bring. Hy val sommer dadelik met die deur in die huis. „Broeder, toe jy nou daar in die woeste oseaan ronddobber, waaraan dink jy toe?”

„Dominee, toe sê ek vir myself, Koos Vorentoe, hier dryf jy op 'n plank Engeland toe en jy kan nie eers Engels praat nie.”

THE AFRICAN HOOPOE

When people see birds, they normally ignore them, probably regarding them as being merely noisy creatures of nature. However when one sees a hoopoe one usually pauses to look at the bird before passing by.

This bird's plumage is very attractive. It has a beautiful orange colour. On its head there is a large orange crest. It has a long, thin, sharp beak. Its wings and tail are covered with dark brown and white stripes and it has an orange breast.

With their long beaks, these birds feed off insects and grubs obtained from under leaves, rotting matter and bark of trees. These insects and grubs are their staple food.

They nest in deserted termite mounds; hollow logs or tree stumps; cracks in walls, and in broken roofs. On an average, they lay four to five eggs. These are of a pale olive-green colour.

Hoopoes are mostly seen on the ground or perching low in trees. When disturbed, they fly away with a soft flapping sound, calling "hoop-hoop."

If there are hoopoes in your garden, don't be disappointed if they disappear. They never live in the same area for any length of time.

FRANCOIS NEFDT, (7E2).

VRIEND CARPIO

Ons ken almal 'n sekere ou, sy naam is mos Carpio.
Hy was toe hier geen week gewees nie of hy had geen bottel vrees nie.

Vir koffie was hy baie bang,
maar skielik wankel toe sy rang.
Hy moet nou proe hoe koffie smaak, anders lag ons dat dit kraak.

Intussen stook hy vir 'n vale,
hy word ook siek — so telkemale.
De Alva wil net aan hom slaan, dit word nou tyd na huis te gaan.

Daar in die land van V.V.O.
hoor ons hoe jok vriend Carpio.
Sjeef by die koffie, maar niemand wil glo —
Ons hou ook nie meer van vriend Carpio.

PIETER FERREIRA, St. 6A2.

MY MOEDER

Die vrou wat my op aarde lei,
By veel gevare en rampe verby.
Die een wat ek so diep bemin,
Met liefde, eindloos, sonder sin,
Sy word genoem my moeder.

Geen opoffering is vir haar te groot,
Vriendelik help sy ander in nood.
Hoewel sy self gebrek soms ly,
Staan sy ander armes by.
Is sy dan nie 'n moeder?

Daaglik swoeg sy en sy sweet,
Om kos te kry vir ons te eet,
En sonder ooit te mor of kla
Help sy ons sorg te dra.
'n Moeder — dit is sy.

A STORM AT SEA

Crash! I awoke with a start! The first thing I noticed was that I was drenched from head to foot. I jumped out of my bunk to find that the floor was under 6 inches of water.

I then discovered the cause of my sudden awakening. The porthole, which was made of very strong glass, had been forced in. I dressed hurriedly and ran out into the passageway. I wrenched open the door at the end of it, and gingerly groped my way along the flooded deck towards the steel ladder, which led to the bridge, while the ship rocked under my feet and the sea roared with fury. To make matters worse, we were also engulfed in dense fog.

It seemed impossible to believe that only two days ago, we had been enjoying mid-summer weather.

At about three o'clock on the previous day, the wind had sprung up, but the sea had remained calm. We had had light rain, but that was all. At about seven o'clock there had been a terrific swell on the port side. This was followed by a ten-foot wave and then it seemed as if the sea was running amuck. Wave after wave pounded against the vessel. The wind had reached tremendous force — its velocity was estimated at about one hundred and twenty miles per hour.

It was now midday, seven hours after my sudden awakening, and still there was no improvement in conditions. The wind was whipping and tearing at the superstructure of the ship, having already brought down the masts. The ship itself was creaking and shuddering under the strain.

The waves were rolling the ship like an empty barrel and all the time we were surrounded by that dense fog. The group of officers, of which I was one, were getting worried because they were afraid that the ship would break up. Later on that day we received the fatal news: the boiler-room was flooding and the pumps could not cope with the water.

The captain gave the order to send S.O.S. signals. Then the funnel collapsed and the rudder was wrenched off. By this time, the stern was dangerously low in the water and the engines were out of action. Slowly the ship's bows lifted out of the water and then the captain uttered the long expected words, "Abandon ship!"

In a short while the ship was deserted and we were pulling away in the life-boats as fast as we
